STOCKTON, CAL., DEC. 5.—H. F. EDWARDS, A SOUTHERN PACIFIC BRAKEMAN, WAS MURDERED SOMETIME LAST NIGHT ON THE ROAD BETWEEN WESLEY AND CROWS LANDING, IN STANISLAUS COUNTY, BY TRAMPS.

BIG STORM IN FIREMEN INJURED AT A FIRE.

SNOW AND SLEET DELAYS TRAFFIC ALL ALONG THE LINE.

NEW YORK, December 5.—A snow and sleet storm delayed traffic in New York today. Service on the elevated lines was seriously interfered with and communication between up-town and down-town by means of the surface lines was very slow and difficult.

Dispatches from all parts of the State show that the storm is prevailing everywhere with varying force. About an inch of snow fell during the afternoon. Sound signals arrived several hours late and their officers reported the storm very heavy up the sound.

Telegraphic service east of New York and New England especially, is prostrated and northward through the State the service is greatly impeded by the wind and snow.

The White Star liner Teutonic, which reached her dock today, completed a trip of seven days and thirteen hours of almost continual storms. The ship met particularly severe weather last night approaching port and anchored in the lower bay. The last bit of the voyage to the dock today was made in a blizzard. Every day of the trip the passengers were kept within storm doors and one of the crew was nearly washed overboard. Toward noon the storm was abated, but the wind continues high.

ONE WAS KILLED AND OTHERS INJURED BY FALLING OF A WALL.

THOMAS B. REED IS MUCH IMPROVED.

WASHINGTON, December 5.—The condition of Former Speaker Thomas B. Reed is considerably improved this morning, according to the bulletin given out by his physicians, after their early visit. The symptoms which last night gave the doctors so much concern, are abating and there is an appreciable reduction in temperature, pulse and respiration. Doctors Gardner and McDonald called at the hotel shortly after seven o'clock this morning and when they left their patient at eight o'clock, they gave out the following bulletin:

"At 7:45 a. m. we find Mr. Reed markedly improved. Temperature 99; pulse 84; respiration 22. Uremic symptoms abating; mind clear; retains nourishment." (Signed) "J. L. GARDNER, "J. L. McDONALD."

The improvement in Mr. Reed's condition continued during the afternoon. He rested reasonably well last night and is bright and cheerful today, joking about his illness with those in his room. Dr. W. C. Goodnow, the expert consultant who was summoned from Philadelphia yesterday evening, returned to his home last night.

BODIES TAKEN FROM THE WRECK.

Diver Has a Dangerous Task Exploring the Boat.

Manager Splers Says Gas Ignited and Caused Explosion.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—The bodies of McGuire and Gallagher, victims of the explosion, were recovered from the hold of the Progress with grappling hooks at noon today.

A diver went down this morning to see if any entrance can be found to the boiler rooms through openings in the hull below the water line. The engine section, where most of the men were working when the explosion occurred, is completely choked with wreckage. Jagged plates of iron make it hazardous for a diver to explore the lower compartments, as they sever the air hose like a knife.

Searching parties are still out in boats, with grappling hooks, plying about the wharf and sounding the eddies made by the current.

Manager Splers says that he does not know how the explosion occurred but believes that gas formed from the oil was in some way ignited. He states that nothing but electric lights were allowed on board and candles prohibited. He thinks that some hand might have lit a match for some purpose, igniting the gas.

INDIAN PAYS THE PENALTY ON SCAFFOLD

STOUT FALLS, S. D., December 5.—George Bear, the Indian, was hanged at 9:03 this morning. He displayed the utmost nerve. Bear was led to the scaffold at 8:30. The noose and cap were adjusted quickly and just a minute later the trap was sprung. No sign of weakness was shown by Bear. While the noose was being adjusted, Rev. William Holmes, an Episcopal minister of Indian blood, offered a last prayer. Bear was pronounced dead in thirty minutes. The body was taken in charge by Rev. Holmes, who left with it at once for the home of the line, the freight business where it will be buried. Only a small crowd of legal witnesses and newspapermen were present.

MISSING MAN TURNS UP

ALAMEDA, Dec. 5.—C. H. Potter, who was arrested here several days ago for passing worthless checks, has been released from custody upon the settling of his accounts by his father, G. H. Potter, a dairyman, who resides in Berkeley.

With the arrest of Potter in Alameda, a strange story has been brought to light.

Some thirteen years ago G. H. Potter received a telegram announcing the death of his father, who had been killed in a railroad accident. Potter telegraphed back at once to give the body a respectable burial and he would pay the expenses. The body of his supposed father was buried and Potter defrayed the expense.

Last Wednesday the young man was informed by telegram that his father was occupying a cell in the Alameda prison. He refused to believe the man was his parent until he came to Alameda and saw that his father, who was thought to have been dead for thirteen years, alive and in serious trouble. After some difficulty Potter adjusted matters with the people whom his father had victimized and secured the release of the old man, whom he took to his home in Berkeley.

To his friends, young Potter says that he will send his father back to "Texas" where he is employed by the railroad company.

Judging from the manner in which the old man has been working his game in this city, the son is inclined to believe that his father may have been the person who secured the son's money for his (the father's) burial, thirteen years ago.

COIN SHAVERS ARE AT WORK

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 5.—Secret Service agents are looking for the person or persons engaged in "shaving" gold coins, a number of the coins having appeared in circulation in this city. Eagles and double eagles are given special attention of the "shavers" from a dollar to two dollars being taken from them and the edges filed and polished to closely resemble the original minting. The only way to detect the mutilated coins is by comparison with a full weight coin. In some cases a sixteenth of an inch has been shaved from the edges of a double eagle. The postoffice officials have been made the victims of the coin shavers in several instances during the past few days.

WOMAN IS INDICTED.

DES MOINES, Ia., Dec. 5.—Mrs. Alla Gallagher, who was recently acquitted at Iowa City of the murder of her husband, has been indicted for perjury. She cannot be located and is reported to have gone to Canada.

She is alleged to have sworn falsely in her own defense.

CHINESE CHILD MUST OBEY LAW.

Judge Decides He Must Attend School Provided For Him.

Important Decision in Favor of the Board of Education.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—Judge De Haven today decided that a Chinese child or a child of Chinese parentage could not attend a school other than the one provided especially for his race. The expression of opinion was brought about in the suit of Henry Eong Him, an infant, by Wong Him, complainant, vs. Mary E. Callahan, principal of the Clement Grammar School, and the City Board of Education.

The Chinese parent will, notwithstanding the action of the Judge, appeal the case on the grounds of error. His son he claims, has been discriminated against, and he will not rest content until the matter has been adjudicated by the courts to whom Judge De Haven is responsible.

STORMY WEATHER IN UNITED KINGDOM

LONDON, Dec. 5.—Stormy weather continues throughout the United Kingdom. High winds and heavy seas interfere with the channel traffic and there have been minor casualties among the shipping. The fall of snow is general, including the channel islands, which is almost unprecedented. Londoners expect skating any day. Similar conditions exist on the continent.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC TO SELL THE NARROW GAUGE BLOCK.

The Southern Pacific has now under consideration a plan to run the South Coast cars up Webster street to Fourteenth and sell the property now used for depot purposes at Franklin and Fourteenth.

There is no legal obstacle to this project, because the company owns a franchise to Fourteenth street on Webster. At present the trains run through the block from Webster to Franklin. This property all belongs to the Southern Pacific.

It is very valuable, being in the heart of the city, for the purposes for which it is now used.

When the South Pacific Coast road was an independent line, this property was used as a freight yard, for the only station the road had in Oakland was located there. But since the Southern Pacific absorbed the line, the freight business has become very light, and there is very little use for switch tracks and freight yards. Consequently, the company is using a valuable piece of business property for a wholly inadequate purpose.

Very likely this is the reason why the company contemplates selling the ground, and will confine its operations at that point to a local passenger traffic entirely, from Webster and Fourteenth streets.

The congregation of the First Presbyterian Church has long desired to sell the property on the northeast corner of Fourteenth and Franklin, but the steam road, running along Fourteenth, between Franklin and Broadway, made it undesirable for business purposes. If the change under consideration is made, it will make the church site available for business purposes, as it will throw the cars a block to the east. Even if the congregation does not sell, they will be glad to be relieved of the clanging of bells, and the noise of the station opposite, during divine service.

LOS ANGELES HAS A MYSTERY.

LOS ANGELES, December 5.—The police are actively at work searching for the missing Wells Fargo Express messenger Charles Spaulding, who disappeared last night between the company's office and the Le Grande Railroad station whether he had been sent with a wagon containing many express packages. The messenger, who was alone, left the office of the express company at Third and Main Streets at 7:15 o'clock for the Santa Fe station.

He did not make his appearance at the depot, and as the express messenger on the train for which his packages were intended did not report the matter, nothing was known of the alleged robbery until an hour later when two boys found the wagon and horses in Eastlake Park.

The strong box in the wagon had been broken open and the packages of express torn off in the search for treasure. In the bottom of the wagon was scattered silverware, toilet cases and other goods which were too bulky to be easily concealed. Envelopes which had contained money was scattered about and the messenger's receipt book was found in the pile of papers torn to pieces. It was first thought the messenger had been assaulted and robbed, but a close investigation failed to disclose any signs of a struggle.

Spaulding's hat was also found, but it was later ascertained he had taken another with him. Everything pointed to the theory that the robbery had been carefully planned.

Spaulding, the missing driver, had been in the employ of the company since November. He came from Chicago and is said to have brought excellent recommendations from the American Express Company of that city. His description has been sent to all points in this part of the State, and the local authorities are searching the city today.

Agent Campbell of the express company said today that the company would lose nothing as Spaulding's salary of $1,500 in a fidelity company would cover three times the amount taken.

It was Campbell's opinion that if Spaulding did not commit the robbery he knew who did.

AN OLD LADY KILLED IN A BICYCLE ACCIDENT.

MRS. ADELIN E. ALLEN, A RESIDENT OF THIS CITY, AGED 72 YEARS, DIED AT THE FABIOLA HOSPITAL AND WAS BURIED LAST WEDNESDAY AS A RESULT OF A BICYCLE ACCIDENT.

THE OLD LADY WAS IN PERFECT HEALTH AT THE TIME OF THE ACCIDENT. SHE WAS STANDING AT THE CORNER OF SAN PABLO AVENUE AND GROVE STREET, WAITING FOR A CAB, WHEN A WOMAN RIDING A BICYCLE RAN INTO HER AND KNOCKED HER DOWN.

THE WOMAN IMMEDIATELY MOUNTED HER WHEEL AND RODE HURRIEDLY AWAY, LEAVING MRS. ALLEN PROSTRATE ON THE GROUND. THE OLD LADY SUFFERED INTERNAL INJURIES FROM WHICH SHE DIED IN TWO DAYS. THE CASE HAS BEEN REPORTED TO THE CORONER FOR AN INVESTIGATION AND THE POLICE HAVE BEEN ASKED TO FIND THE INHUMAN BIKER.

SAN FRANCISCO MEN IN A MUTINY.

They Shoot Captain and Kill the Mate at Sea.

Then They Escape on a Raft and Are Supposed to be Lost.

QUEENSTOWN, December 5.—The British ship Leinster Castle, from San Francisco July 26, arrived here today. Her commander reported that on September 29, three American seamen mutinied and Captain Peattie and his second officer were shot the latter fatally, after an encounter with the mutineers who left the ship on a raft in mid-ocean.

Captain Peattie gave the names of the mutineers as W. A. Hobbs, Ernest Sears and Turner. They were all shipped in San Francisco. The second officer, Mr. Nixon, was shot while attempting to rescue the captain. In the darkness the mutineers got a few planks and formed a raft and launched it from the ship, which was then about 300 miles north of the Pitcairn Islands. The captain searched for the raft the next day but it was not sighted and it was surmised that it went to pieces.

Captain Peattie added that Hobbs was the actual murderer of Mr. Nixon, whom he shot through the heart. The captain himself was shot twice, but quite recovered when he arrived here.

When the chief officer discovered that the three men had mutinied, he suspended the rest of the crew on the spot, intending to await daylight and capture the mutineers, but the latter escaped in the interim.

The captain is unable to account for the mutiny. He supposed it was the intention of the mutineers to murder the officers and the men who refused to join them and take the ship to Pitcairn Island.

It is said that Hobbs came from Illinois, Sears from Idaho and James Turner from Portland, Or. The mutineers took a week's provisions with them on the raft.

HEAVY TRAVEL OVER THE S. P. LINE.

The Railroad Company Makes a Report on its Service.

Many People Have Come to the Coast to Locate.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—The Southern Pacific reports that 17,164 passengers came over their lines via the Ogden gateway while the low settlers or colonist rates were in effect during September and October.

The number via El Paso during the same time was 6,886 with a small number reaching their line at Los Angeles, a total of nearly 25,000 passengers.

This, of course, was due not only to the low rates, but to the extensive way in which the railroad advertised the climatic and industrial advantages of California for all classes.

As the rates were only effective westbound, it is a fair inference that the large majority of these passengers remained in California as a permanent increase to the population.

UNIONS AFTER THE CHINESE.

STOCKTON WORKMEN WANT A NEW DEAL AFTER THE NEW YEAR.

STOCKTON, Dec. 5.—The labor unions of this city have taken stringent measures to do away with the employment of Japanese or Chinese in this city after January 1, 1903.

The blacksmiths' union started the ball rolling by passing a set of resolutions by the terms of which any member eating at a restaurant or patronizing any other establishment where a Chinese or a Japanese is employed will be fined $25 for the first offense and $50 for the next.

The proposition met with the unanimous approval of the union, after which it was passed up to the federated trades and unanimously approved by that body, which is composed of delegates from the various unions of the city.

Other unions will take the matter up at once and pass similar resolutions.

NO SURETY BONDS FOR THE CARMEN

OAKLAND TRANSIT COMPANY WILL NOT EXACT THEM FROM ITS EMPLOYEES IN FUTURE—INTERESTS ON DEPOSITS.

The Oakland Transit Company has decided upon two changes of policy that greatly please the car men. It has been the custom of the Company to require conductors and motormen to give a surety bond of $250 each as an indemnity against loss by negligence or other infraction of the Company's rules. Each conductor is also required to make a deposit of $25 cash.

No interest has heretofore been paid on such deposits. On and after January 1st the surety bonds will be abolished, and an interest rate of six per cent paid on all deposits.

The following notice, addressed to motormen, posted at the offices and power stations, speaks for itself:

"On and after January 1st, 1903, the outstanding surety company bonds of all motormen and conductors will be canceled and no renewals required. Interest at the rate of six per cent per annum will be paid by the Company on all deposits of motormen and conductors."

"We take pleasure in making this announcement, believing that the men in the employ of this Company will not seek to excuse any negligence on the part of their fellowmen and that they will, in the future, continue to do their duty in as careful and efficient a manner and to the best interests of the Company, as they have done in the past. Very truly, "OAKLAND TRANSIT CONSOLIDATED "W. F. KELLY, General Manager."

December 3, 1902.

"This notice came about naturally in the adjustment of amicable relations between the Company and its employees," said Manager Kelly. "The car men made no formal demand to have the surety bonds abolished, but some of them talked about it informally and said they deemed it a hardship. I never saw much use in it myself, but it was a rule that was in force when I came here, and has been continued ever since. As a matter of fact its only purpose was disciplinary, but I think we can get along just as well without it."

"About ten days ago some of the boys said they would like to talk to me about matters connected with their employment. I said all right, come and take dinner with me and we will talk it all over. After dinner this matter was broached, and I asked what were the objections to the rule. They replied that in case a man had an accident and the penalty was exacted, and the man discharged, he could not get reinstated again unless he reimbursed the surety company; that he must pay the insurance and the loss or lose his chance of employment. I promised to lay the matter before the directors, and did so, with the result that it was decided to abolish the indemnity bonds entirely. It was also decided to pay interest on deposits just as though they were in a savings bank. There is nothing in it beyond a desire on the part of the company to treat its employees in a manner to promote good feeling."

The concession was voluntary.

THE ALAMEDA.

ALAMEDA, Dec. 5.—An attempt was made last night by some underclassmen and alumni of the Alameda High school to capture Ed Mitchell, who will act as addressee at tonight's minstrel show to be given by the graduating class. For some time there has been a conflict on between the students and the lower classmen, and last night's affair was the outcome of the attempt on the part of the latter to stop the minstrel show.

Last night, while making his way down back streets in hopes of reaching his home in safety, Mitchell was captured. Being taken to the school, he was held until an opportunity to make his escape presented itself. At the time the school was closed, the latter's home on Broadway, the capture made a dash for liberty. One fence and Mitchell, by a route known only to himself, made a quick escape to the roof of the house, where he patiently awaited the departure of his captors. It is not thought that another attempt will be made to break up tonight's performance.

The wedding took place several months ago at the home of the bride's mother, Mr. and Mrs. Cather. The bride was a resident of the West End for a long time. Her husband is a night operator at the telephone office. Her uniform courtesy made her a great favorite with the patrons.

THE PRESERVE THE FORESTS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—The third annual convention of the California Water and Forests Association opened in the Palace Hotel this morning. President William Thomas called for earnest effort to secure to California all the possible benefits arising under the irrigation act passed by Congress at its last session. He hoped that with suitable action by the Legislature the federal construction of reservoirs may soon commence in this State.

The association, he said, will present to the Legislature bills providing for the establishment of a State Forestry system, the reservation of all denuded lands purchased by the State for delinquent taxes, and for the annual purchase of further denuded lands. Thomas suggested the appointment of a committee to confer with other State organizations and agree upon legislation desired, to avoid a multiplicity of bills.

Treasurer Dohrmann showed a balance on hand of $1,100. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Chief Justice William H. Beatty; first vice-president, William Thomas; second vice-president, Arthur R. Briggs; third vice-president, J. L. Lippincott; secretary, T. C. Friedlander; treasurer, F. W. Dohrmann.

Justice Beatty at first declined the office of president, on the ground that he could not advocate legislation containing provisions involving constitutional questions, such as might hereafter come before him in his judicial capacity. This, however, was removed by the action of the association, which, by resolution, relieved the incoming president from all responsibility or need of action in relation to matters of legislation.

General N. P. Chipman moved that a committee of three be appointed to confer with the State Forestry Commission and the State Lands Commission, and to examine into the validity of entries of land in Lassen and Shasta districts and with relation to proposed forest reserves, presenting arguments and suggestions as the committee may deem best. The general said his own opinion is that all the timber land of the Sierras, from the northward to the southward, should be reserved. He said, however, that the President could do no more than create forest reserves. He considered it a vital matter to preserve the forests about Lassen and Shasta.

William H. Mills made an eloquent plea for the preservation of forests. He said that the vast forests of California should be reserved, and that this will not be inconsistent with the proper use of forests for lumbering purposes. He explained the operation of land laws, and urged the association to ask for the reservation of all forest lands in the State from sale and not the creation of forest reserves.

A recess was taken without action.

PARALYSIS CAUSED DEATH OF A. E. BUCK

YOKOHAMA, December 5.—Paralysis of the heart caused the death of United States Minister Albert E. Buck, which occurred yesterday. The end came tranquilly. Mr. Buck was the son of the Emperor in a duck hunt on the Shikima preserves. A bird has been killed and the Minister with a joyful remark started to shoot the net. Suddenly he fell and without a word or groan expired instantaneously. He had suffered from a weak heart for some time.

Mrs. Buck was not with the party.

Minister Buck was held in high esteem in Japan and the flag on the Government buildings have been placed at half mast.

The funeral has been set for Tuesday next. Secretary J. M. Ferguson is in charge of the funeral.

Cohn's Holiday Hints

We want you to spend a few minutes on Saturday looking at our windows. They are worth it. You will be pleased with the display, and we shall be doubly pleased because of your pleasure.

Here are a few of the things you will see:

HOLIDAY NECKWEAR

It costs no more to weave an artistic pattern than one that is not attractive. It costs no more to shape neckwear correctly than to make it incorrectly.

It does require experience and good taste to select what is right from the other kind. We have this experience and good taste and this explains why our neckwear at 50c looks just as good as that which others sell at one dollar.

You'll notice this yourself.

You'll also notice that no novelty is missing.

The above remarks apply with equal force to our

FAULTLESS HOLIDAY SHIRTS

The very swellest are priced

and they are fully equal to the shirts many are now selling for two dollars.

You'll notice this yourself.

You'll also notice that no novelty is missing.

HOLIDAY SWEATERS

New weaves, new stripes, new colorings, better finish to cuffs and neck; sleeves better fitted—than any sweaters you ever saw. You'll notice this yourself.

Men's Sweaters $3.00

Boy's Sweaters from $1.25

HOLIDAY HOSIERY

Here's another line in which we fear no competition. Just now our display is largely of the great "Shawknit" novelties and you'll notice that not anything that is new is missing.

NEW SIGNAL SYSTEM.

INSTALLED NEAR ELMHURST BUT SO FAR HAS NOT MET WITH SUCCESS.

ELMHURST, December 5.—The Oakland Transit Company has established a block system of signals on the Haywards line. It has been installed at either end of the single track run between High Street and Charlie Harris' place, a short distance beyond Seminary Avenue. The system has been in operation for several days but has apparently not met with success. The signal arms have a way of refusing to move at the proper time, and unless the difficulty can be remedied, the system will have to be abandoned. The purpose of the system is to show the motorman of cars going either direction, whether or not the single track is clear. In order that such a system meet with success it must be positively correct. At the present time the car men are not running according to the signal system, and it is not probable they will, unless it can be made accurate. The danger of depending upon the signals lies in the fact that if a motorman sees by the arm or light on the post that the track is clear, he will not hesitate to run onto the single track at high speed, and should the night be foggy the signal arm will be down, the track is occupied, the danger of collisions is doubled.

It is likely, though, that the Company will adopt the block system unless it can be thoroughly relied upon. The difficulty in the system used in this instance is that it is operated by electricity, while the ones used by the steam roads are operated by compressed air and are seldom wrong.

DIPHTHERIA AT WEST BERKELEY

WILL PREVENT SPREAD OF THE DISEASE IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

WEST BERKELEY, Dec. 5.—There is an epidemic of diphtheria raging in West Berkeley that is beginning to find its way into the public schools and to prevent its spread, Health Officer Payne has issued that Principal Root report every case of the disease that occurs in the school to him. At the present time two families in the town have the disease in their midst and another child died recently from the disease.

Last Wednesday Health Officer Payne examined every pupil in the Columbia School, and, although they were found to be in perfect health, he insisted that when the least sign of the symptoms of diphtheria are discovered to report to him so that the progress of the malady may be checked.

As a precaution against the disease it is understood that the children will be subjected to vaccination.

FRUITVALE IS GROWING.

Many important improvements are being made in suburban town.

FRUITVALE, December 5.—A sign of the growth and progress of Fruitvale is shown in the recent opening of the Sather tract, which is located between Fruitvale Avenue and High Street, fronting on the San Leandro road. This tract of land is being cut up in blocks and within a few years will be covered with houses.

The contract for opening and macadamizing the streets was let to the E. B. and A. L. Stone Company and the work is now being rapidly prosecuted.

It is the intention of the owners of this tract to build it up in subdivisions of lots and to build it up as rapidly as possible. It is well located, being within four blocks of the Dewey school at its Eastern limit, High Street, while the Western boundary line extends to the school property. The building up of this tract is very encouraging to the business men and property holders of this place.

WOMEN'S PRESENT FARGE.

OLIVE BRANCH CIRCLE OF SAN LEANDRO SCORES A SUCCESS.

SAN LEANDRO, Dec. 5.—The members of Olive Branch Circle, Women of Woodcraft, gave an entertainment last night, which was one of the most amusing affairs of the year. A similar event was given some months ago by Olive Branch Circle, but the affair of last night eclipsed it by far in the way of humor. The farce that occupied the principal part of the evening was entitled "Romance of the Old Maid from Kibbick." It consisted of a number of comic situations in which several splutters are placed. The parts were taken by members of the order and were carried out with marked success. The piece is set in Alaska, where the old maid of Kibbick, who is some twelve, meets with a variety of mishaps.

The Town Hall, in which the entertainment took place, was packed to the doors, which was due to the success of the former affair. The audience realized quite a sum and have been highly complimented when the matter in which the entertainment was conducted.

CHRISTMAS PARTY.

Active preparations are now being made for Cherry Camp, Woodmen of the World, for the annual Christmas party, which will be given by that order to the children of the members. The affair promises to be of great interest to the children and the members of the order. This and literary numbers is being prepared, together with numerous other interesting features. The party will be given at the Town Hall, and all who attend. In all probability a Christmas tree will be set up and the members of the order will be given a very good time.

PREPARATIONS OF AN ELABORATE NATURE are being made by the members of the local lodge of the Order of the Elks, for the annual Christmas party, which will be given on Saturday evening, December 20th. The affair will take place at Holy Ghost Hall, and will be one of the largest functions given by the Portuguese society this season. The hall will be decorated for the occasion and nothing will be spared in the effort to make the affair an interesting event.

THE PROGRESO ACCIDENT.

No doubt those who object, either from motives of interest or prejudice, to the use of oil as fuel for steamships will point to the Progreso disaster as a proof that oil is dangerous to be used with safety for providing steam heat for ships. Yet there is little merit in the contention. While the cause of the explosion is unknown, everything indicates that it was the result of some mechanical defect. Although oil has been used for steamship fuel for many years on the Caspian and Black seas, in Russia, few explosions have resulted. Besides it is no more dangerous to use on shipboard than it is to use in locomotives or machine shops on land.

Wherever steam is used, explosions will occur. They are among the unavoidable vicissitudes of generating steam and applying it as motive power. One might as well object to steam itself. But nobody thinks of dispensing with steam power because a boiler occasionally explodes.

It is important to California that the use of oil as fuel for steam heating purposes should not be discouraged. This State is a great producer of oil, and the more extended its use the wider our market and the better the prices realized. There are no deposits of coal in California suitable for steamship fuel, but we have an inexhaustible supply of oil. This oil costs much less than coal, and is easier and cheaper to handle. It also develops a greater speed capacity in ships, and enormously expands the steaming radius.

It is impossible to sail steamers of the highest speed across the Pacific ocean with coal because the fuel takes up too much room. The use of oil would obviate this difficulty, because 2,300 tons of oil will generate as much steam as 3,000 tons of coal, and with much less expense in handling. As the United States government is now experimenting with a view to using oil as fuel for warships and transports, the oil producers should combat any attempt of the coal interests to use the Progreso accident as an argument against its use.

P. S.—Since the above was placed in type it has developed that the accident was caused by the use of inferior oil—oil of such a low flash test as to be dangerous at any time. It appears that the ship and fourteen lives were sacrificed because a low grade oil could be purchased very cheaply. This suggests the need of an official inspection to prevent greed from taking desperate chances in the effort to increase profits.

STUDENT ROWDYISM REBUKED.

At Cleveland the other day, Richard Mansfield, the actor, administered a merited rebuke to college students who indulge in college yells, misplaced gaudy and boisterous behavior during theatrical performances. A large body of students occupied seats in the gallery together and made themselves obnoxious to spectators and actors alike by yelling, stamping and hissing. Subsequently students of the Western Reserve University and Case Scientific School attempted to buy seats on bloc, but were refused and plainly told the reason. Their behavior was such that Mansfield would not sell them seats in a body. Very likely the noisiest of the students were most bitter in denouncing the actor, for that is the way of the world, but we venture to say that the more sober and self-respecting of the young men confessed to themselves that Mansfield served them right. What is there, anyhow, about modern college life that encourages the idea that it is permissible for students to act like savages at a war dance at public entertainments? There is no more reason why a college student should not act like a gentleman than there is for anybody else to do so. But an idea seems to have grown up of late years that students in a body are privileged to behave like rowdies on all occasions. What has caused it? Some observers are of the opinion that the craze for football has a good deal to do with the cultivation of a rough and rowdy spirit among undergraduates. Football certainly does not check the tendency, and the sport itself is becoming too rough and brutal as to bring out popular protests against it.

Jerome, the District Attorney of New York, thinks the best way to break a faro bank is to use a sled hammer, let the chips fall where they may.

LITTLE FIGHTERS AT WORK.

The contest between Eddie Hahn and Maxey Haugh is exciting intense interest over in San Francisco. The people think Hahn is to meet his Waterloo in this fight and they are all anxious to see the lad who can succeed in putting the finishing touches on the historic invincible Hahn. Haugh has gathered around him a string of moneyed supporters who are likely to make him a smart favorite in the betting long before ring time. Considerable Eastern money is being sent to the coast to place at any odds on the Brooklyn lad. This does not discourage Hahn in the least, but he realizes that he has a hard fight on his hands. Another handicap that will lesson Eddie's chance is the weight question. It is a well-known fact that he has grown big since his fight with McFadden. The local fighter has run up to 132 pounds untrained. This necessitates his reducing to 120 and 122 pounds is a big pile of weight to take off for a big man to say nothing of a feather weight.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE.

In Store for Those Who Doubt.

When you read that a sufferer of many years standing has been completely restored to health by using Smith's Cure, you are inclined to doubt the statement and, in fact, have no belief in it whatever. The reason for this is that so much is claimed for the "Cure-all" it is impossible for anyone to believe it. If the advertiser confessed his claims to the curing of one disease, as do the proprietors of Pyramid Pile Cure, readers would have much more faith in published testimonials. Those families with this great remedy know that testimonials as to its merit may be relied upon implicitly, also that the cures brought about by its use are little short of marvelous. The genuineness of the testimonial here given is vouched for and is but one of thousands received.

I had a friend who had used one box of 50 cent Pyramid Pile Cure (this is entirely cured here, I saw the good effect on her, and thought I would try it, as I had got so I could not sit down without extreme pain and getting up was just as bad; the first box nearly cured me; I got the second box and have had no trouble since. Pyramid Pile Cure does all that it claims to do, and I never miss an opportunity to tell its merits. I speak from observation, and personal benefit. Two boxes cured me over a year ago, and no return of the trouble since." Mrs. M. Mooney, 5000 Sunnyside street, Chicago, Ill.

Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by drug-gists for fifty cents a package, or will be mailed to any address upon receipt of price by Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich. Write this firm for their book describing the cause and cure of piles.

ENGAGEMENT OF WM. B. KING.

ART EXHIBIT WILL OPEN AT THE UNITARIAN CHURCH THIS EVENING.

The engagement of Miss Martha Snow to William B. King was announced yesterday afternoon at a luncheon given at the home of Miss Snow, 1419 Union Street, Alameda. Mr. King is the organist of the First Congregational Church of this city and is regarded as one of the foremost younger musicians of this coast. As an organist he is regarded as having few superiors. He has studied abroad, and is one of the most popular members of the Athenian Club. Miss Snow is the daughter of Louis T. Snow, the ship-builder and commission merchant of San Francisco, and in Alameda their home city, they are leaders in society. The date of the wedding is not announced.

Goodson and daughter have closed their summer residence at Ross Valley for the winter and are now stopping at the St. Dunstan, San Francisco. They will leave for Europe the latter part of January.

THE ART EXHIBIT.

The Stuart King art exhibit, which opens this evening at the Unitarian Church, gives every indication of being a marked success, a large number of well-known artists having sent some of their best and most recent works. The judges have tried to eliminate everything but the best this year and the result is a most creditable display. The exhibit includes oil and water coloring paintings, wash drawings and pen and ink sketches. There will be no showing of photographs. A few of the exhibitors are: C. T. Piazzi; Sidney Yard, who is a recent acquisition to the artist colony of Oakland; Miss J. M. Carpenter; Miss Rose L. Campbell; C. Chappel Judson, Cadenasso; Bertha Stringer; Lee, De Neale; Moscan, J. M. Griffin; Miss Annie Briggs; Oscar Kunath; Mrs. Newell, Gamble and others. The bust of John Muir, which has been attracting considerable attention, is exhibited by the young sculptress, Miss Gertrude Boyle, of San Francisco.

Admission to the salon will be by invitation only and the occasion will be signified by a promenade concert. The exhibit will be open to the public Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock and every evening and afternoon after that a different musical programme having been arranged for each evening.

CHICKENPOX IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOL.

Editor TRIBUNE:—I want to call your attention to the way the Franklin School in East Oakland is conducted. The principal permits children to attend school who are suffering from the chickenpox, thereby exposing all the other children in the school. Have the parents of well children no rights? Does the Board of Education approve of such action? Please help us to get some relief.

CAVE LECTURE AT SYNAGOGUE.

DR. MARGOLIS SPEAKS UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE JEWISH WOMEN.

Dr. Margolis, professor of Semitic languages at the State University delivered a lecture last night at the First Hebrew Synagogue on the subject: "Race, People or Religious Community." There was a large attendance.

In opening his remarks, Professor Margolis said that, while no two individuals look exactly alike, it was easy to detect similarities and people were grouped according to these. The similarities most easily detected were the physical characteristics such as size, complexion, color of eyes, etc. It was easy to tell the difference between the Caucasian and the Mongolian, for instance, but it was not so easy to distinguish the Russian from the Pole.

In coming down to the individual of any one race, the speaker said, it was not possible to find in him all the characteristics of that race. Each individual possessed some qualities distinct from his race or type. This was due to the intermingling of races. It was only when a race kept itself isolated from others that the racial type became definitely fixed. This would happen the speaker said, when members of a race intermarried only with their own people.

Where there was such isolation of races, there arose, as a natural consequence, between them a certain antagonism, just as there is competition between individuals in trade. This antagonism resulted in a struggle between the different races for supremacy and as a consequence, was likely to result in the extinction of the one or the other.

In reply to the query propounded by himself as to whether the Jew was a member of a distinct race, Professor Margolis said that he was not in the primary sense of the word. The Jew, he said, were usually referred to as members of the Semitic race but there was no such thing as a Semitic race—that term was applied to the people who used the Semitic language and they could not be grouped together as one race. It was easy to distinguish the Jew from the Arab.

As to the characteristics of the Jew, the speaker said that, while the average Jew was of dark complexion, there were some blonds. This was due to intermingling with other types in the past at a time when religious views did not lead the people to marry in a country of their own race only. At the present time, the speaker said, the Jews were isolating themselves and as a result, in time, would result in the fixing of a definite type.

In answer to the question as to whether the Jews were a nation, the speaker replied that they were not in the sense that a people was a nation, for the Jews the speaker said, had no national life and did not have a country of their own. It was the purpose of the Zionists to re-establish the Jews in Palestine, their theory being that the Jews were outwardly Germans, Americans, etc., and that they still had within them a common spirit which would manifest itself if they were again established in a country of their own. The speaker said that he was no Zionist but he gave it his opinion that, if the Jews remained in America, they would remain isolated from the other people who would amalgamate. This would exaggerate the difference between the Jew and the non-Jew. This isolation would be conducive to the welfare of the Jew, the speaker said that he had grave doubts.

As to whether the Jews were a religious community, the speaker said that Judaism, like Christianity and other religions, was a social system, and he endorsed its principles. Some Jews, he claimed to be proud of the fact that they were racial Jews, were in the habit of sneering at the religious discarding of the people. The speaker said he did not consider such persons good Jews. He believed that the Jew should affiliate with their church and kindred organizations rather than with so-called Jewish clubs and political societies.

At the conclusion of his lecture, Professor Margolis was warmly applauded and he was thanked by Rabbi Friedlander in behalf of the Women's Council, under whose auspices he spoke.

ROBT LUSCOMBE'S WILL

The will of Robert Luscombe has been filed for probate in the Superior Court of this county by Attorney Charles H. Lovell of Oakland. The estate is valued at over $25,000 and is bequeathed to the widow and other relatives.

Mr. Luscombe was one of the oldest merchants in San Francisco and at the time of his death was senior partner of the drug goods firm of Luscombe and Son, 225 Sanson street, San Francisco. He died November 21 at his home, 122 Orange street, Vernon heights, at the age of fifty-two. He left besides a widow and sister, a brother, Philip Luscombe of Portland, Or.

MERCHANT COLLIDES WITH FREIGHT TRAIN.

SAN JOSE, December 5.—John Johnston, a hay and grain dealer, was seriously injured about three o'clock this morning. He was in a buggy and was in the act of crossing the railroad track on Autumn street, when he collided with a freight train. The horse had crossed the track and escaped injury, but Johnston was thrown out of the buggy, striking on the back of his head. The buggy was wrecked. Johnston was picked up in an unconscious condition. There was a frightful gash on the skull, but no fracture. There is a chance for his recovery.

LETTERS ARE GRANTED.

Letters of guardianship of the person and estate of Dorothy Miller have been granted to Frank S. Rogers.

CAN WRITE THEM.

Calkins, the Story Teller.

Mr. Franklin W. Calkins of Wyoming, Wis., who writes many interesting stories for the Youth's Companion, says: "Food can make or unmake a writer. For a number of years, living on a sedentary life of the writer and student, I suffered all the ills of nervous dyspepsia. I could eat nothing in the morning save a dry crust, toasted bread and a cup of weak coffee. For my dinner at 1 o'clock, I had been in the habit of eating rare beefsteak, the only food from which I seemed to get proper nourishment, but no meal was taken without the accompaniment of indigestion. I was beginning to get disgusted with life.

"About a year ago a friend suggested Grape-Nuts, telling me of the benefit they had received from the food and I began with it as directed. I found immediate relief from my indigestion and in a short time my dyspepsia left me entirely. I have now used Grape-Nuts for a year and have had no trouble with my stomach, having eaten many enjoyable dinners.

"I find in fact that all you say for Grape-Nuts is true and it is certainly the food for brain workers and the truth of your claims is proved in my own case. I have no appetite for meats."

HACK GOES OVER PRECIPICE.

HAYWARDS, Dec. 5.—Yesterday, while the remains of Liberty Bell were being escorted from this city to the grave, a hack containing four persons, with the driver and the team of horses attached, was precipitated over a bluff, falling to the bed of a creek many feet below, where it was shattered to pieces.

Consternation took possession of the inmates, because they were unable to escape from the wreck.

DOLL SHOW AT MAPLE HALL IS A LARGE AFFAIR.

MANY CHILDREN POSE IN THE LIVING PICTURES—MANY PEOPLE ATTEND ON THE OPENING NIGHT.

The opening night of the doll show, given for the benefit of the building fund of the West Oakland Home, was a grand success and was attended by throngs of society people.

Maple Hall was even more attractive last night than in the afternoon, as the hundreds of brilliant electric lights gave a color to the decorations and flowers and grasses.

The success of the show is assured, both socially and financially, and many dollars will be added to the West Oakland Home building fund.

The crowds began to come early last night and soon a continual stream of people was passing round the tables, admiring the elaborately dressed bits of wax work and sampling the refreshments.

The fancy work tables did a rushing business, as did the ladies at the paper ornament table.

The fish pond was a great attraction for the children and many secured valuable prizes as the result of their efforts with the bent pin and rod.

The completely furnished doll house kindly loaned by Mrs. Arthur P. Hoil was the center of an admiring crowd at all times, and it is one of the best features in the show.

There is a Lilliputian table, upon which there is not a doll over three inches high, and all are dancing about a May pole. The display has been very cleverly arranged.

There are hundreds of dolls of all kinds and to describe them each would be a difficult task. But some are fancy dressed dolls, others neat tailor dressed affairs; some are bridesmaids, others as brides; some are baby dolls, and all are most carefully dressed to represent their parts.

The bride doll, dressed by Mrs. R. M. Braire, is particularly attractive and so is the handsomely dressed doll donated by Miss E. T. Mills.

Many of the merchants about town have donated magnificently dressed dolls, and withal the affair is the best and largest doll show ever given in the city.

One of the most pleasing features of the show are the living pictures, for which nearly fifty little children have been drilling for weeks. The little

INTERESTING FACTS.

For Nearly Every Man, Woman or Child.

A short time ago we published an article recommending to our readers the new discovery for the cure of Dyspepsia, called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and the claims then made regarding the wonderful curative properties of the remedy have been abundantly sustained by the facts. People who were cautious about trying new remedies advertised in the newspapers and were finally induced to give Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets a trial were surprised and delighted at the results. In many cases a single box of tablets cost 50 cents at any drug store made a complete cure and in every instance the most beneficial results were reported. From a hundred or more received we have space to publish only a few of the latest but assure our readers we receive so many commendatory letters that we shall publish each week a fresh list of genuine, unsolicited testimonials and never publish the same one twice.

From James Yemmeliser, La. Cross, Wis.: "Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are doing me more good than anything I ever tried and I was so pleased at results that I gave away several boxes to my friends who have also had the same benefits."

From Jacob Anthony, Portmurray, New Jersey: "I have taken Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets with the best results. I had Dyspepsia for 6 years and had taken a great deal of medicine, but the Tablets seem to take right, a hold and I feel good. I am a farmer and lime burner and I heartily recommend to everyone who has any trouble with his stomach to use these Tablets."

From Mrs. M. K. West, Preston, Minn.: "I have received surprisingly good effects from using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I gave one-half of my last box to a friend who also suffered from indigestion and she had the same good results."

From Mrs. Agnes K. Ralston, Cadillac, Mich.: "I have been taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and I am very much better, and feel very grateful for the great benefit I have received in so short a time."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a certain cure for all forms of Indigestion. They are not claimed to be a cure-all, but are prepared for stomach troubles only, and physicians and druggists everywhere recommend them to all persons suffering from Nervous Dyspepsia, sour or acid stomach, heartburn, bloating or wind on stomach and similar disorders.

Ogden; Schley and Cook, Robert Duncan and Jack Hampton; Holland, Anita Crellin; Curly Locks, Irene McCreavy and Bedford Boyes; chrysanthemums, Helen Mead and Margie Merritt; raising the flag at Santiago, Jack Hampton.

Prize awards will be made tomorrow. The judges are Mrs. John Bakewell, Mrs. John Yule, Mrs. F. M. Smith, Mrs. G. H. Wheaton, Mrs. William Letts Oliver, Mrs. E. B. Beck and Mrs. Willard Barton.

COUNTRY CLUB IS PLANNED.

WILL TRY AND PURCHASE PROPERTY IN THE CLAREMONT DISTRICT.

A number of prominent men held a meeting at the Athenian Club and talked over the proposition of establishing a country club in this county. It was proposed that a tract of over 100 acres of the Adams property, lying between Claremont avenue and the hills, be purchased and turned into a splendid country park. Within a short time it is thought articles of incorporation will be filed and the club will be regularly organized.

Among those present at the meeting from Berkeley were President Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the University of California, A. W. Wilson and Anson Blake. From Alameda there were F. W. Van Sicken, A. W. Scott, W. A. Bissell and G. Tyson. Oakland was represented by T. M. Fitzgerald, C. O. G. Miller, W. P. Johnson, Orestes Pierce, Fred S. Stratton, A. S. Macdonald, George W. McNear, E. R. Folger and James Moffitt.

It is planned to lay out grounds for all kinds of outdoor sports, such as golf, polo, football, riding and driving. A number of avenues are already, through the tract and these are to be made into beautiful driveways. It is proposed to spend at least $200,000 in the purchase and improvement of the grounds, a part of the sum to be used in the building of a clubhouse on one of the highest elevations. The Oakland Golf Club and the Oakland Riding Club most likely will be merged into the proposed organization.

RELiance CLUB WILL GIVE A BENEFIT.

The lovers of high class vaudeville have a treat in store for them Tuesday evening in the entertainment to be provided by the Reliance Club at the Macdonough Theater. The committee having in the matter of securing talent in charge has provided a program which will result in a very fine vaudeville show. While one or two of the acts have been seen in Oakland before they are of the sort that will bear repeating and draw the better for it.

It is two years since the club gave its last benefit. During those two years the club has frequently given ladies' nights and jinks to which invitations have been issued freely. Its entertainments have always been very pleasant affairs and those who have accepted the club's hospitality have been well entertained. The club needs money for some improvements and it is now asking the public to return some of its favors by patronizing its show at the Macdonough Tuesday evening. Inasmuch as a first class show will be given it is really not a matter of a donation as every one who attends will get his money's worth.

One of the features of the show will be the singing of the Crandall Male Quartet. This quartet is under the leadership of Edwin Dunbar Crandall. Each is the possessor of a well trained voice and their singing is of a very high order. Another number which will surely please will be the athletic number supplied by George Oleson on the slack wire, George Durning and Art Grimes on the double trapeze and George Schiller on the Roman rings, all three turns being on the stage at the same time. This aggregation made a decided hit at the last athletic ladies' night in the club and also at the Reliance Circus during the Elks' street fair. Since their last public appearance, all have added new tricks to their acts.

Baby Lillian Dolliver in her cute make up and delightful rendition of all the latest song songs will be a feature which will please the young as well as the old. Baby Dolliver always makes a hit and she will be at her best Tuesday.
